Nyu	1	Hi everyone. I'm 26 originally from Korea and have been living in Germany for the past 4 years. I think I'm pretty nice, but not a complete angel 😊. In my free time I like to do a bunch of different things. When I have the time I always enjoy having some good conversation, especially with a delicious cup of tea or coffee. I also love going to museums or exhibits. Especially when it's about impressionism. Otherwise I also love to read or sing. Whenever I want to do something with my hands I create jewelry or cook/eat delicious food 😊. I chose this picture because the variety of colors represent my various facets and the rainbow my nice character. Have a great day <3.
Martin	1	Hello, I'm Martin, 52 years old, married for 24 years and have 2 children. I have been a software engineer for approximately 30 years, but don't worry: I have left the nerd glasses long behind and am doing everything in my power to avoid being partially bald or have a beer belly ;). I'm pretty sporty and love to bike or go on hikes with my family. My wife and I have just started dancing lessons, however it does not come as naturally to me as biking does. The bear represents my personality rather well,, as I can be a bit grumpy at times but remain a family guy at all times. Additionally I love being in nature. I'm excited to take part in this. Kind regards, Martin.
Max	1	Hello everyone, I'm Max, 20 years old and am currently studying political science in munich. As you can already guess based on my course of study I'm interested in politics and also like to do politics related things in my free time. I like to play guitar and am a music enthusiast, like to go to concerts and I play in a band. On the side I also like to do sports and travel, especially in the Scandinavian countries. I chose a picture of a campfire, because I associate it with exciting conversations, friends and music, so basically me. I'm excited to meet a bunch of people here that have similar interests as me.
Eleana	1	Hello, I'm Elena, 32 years old and a new mom. Currently I'm still on mothers leave, but usually I work in media. I love blueberry muffins, baked myself or just in general, Strange Things with a cup of tea, long walks and photography, especially when combined. Otherwise I'm pretty tied up with the little one. Every day is exciting and new for her and I'm enjoying it so much to get to rediscover the world with her. I chose the picture, because it feels warm and inviting, which is how I'm perceived by others as well, I hope. Additionally it's at a lake at which I like to go for a walk with the little one, which is why I find the picture quite fitting.
Laura	1	🌟Hi lovelies, I'm Laura, 🌟 19 years old and love to do yoga 🧘, especially if it involves baby animals 🐾!!!! I also love to travel ✈️ and would love to explore the whole world 🌍! That why i obviously had to do a year of work and travel after school! 🧡💜💚 I also love to go shopping 🛍️, especially with my girls 👯 . Otherwise I'm the girl who you can always have fun with as long as I'm with my friends!!!! I also love recording tiktoks, especially dancing videos 🕺, and you can obviously find me on Insta! 📷 This ist he first time I'm participating in such a study, thus i'm pretty nervous. 😊 I chose the picture because it represents my love for travel and positive energy 🌞🇪🇺
Arjen	1	Hey, I'm Arjen and am studying bioinformatics at TUM. Just like probably every other student I love to travel and hang out with my friends. I also love to play boardgames: Between Codenames, Kingdom Builder, Dominion or Terra Mystica I'm ready for anything, except for Monopoly! Keep that away from me haha. Aside from board games I'm also a pretty typical gamer, mainly on PC but sometimes I also like to play switch. I also enjoy going to conventions like Gamescon with my friends. Only an esports event remains on my yet to do list, but I'm sure I'll be able to tick it off soon. I chose Chamber from my favorite shooter Valorant as my picture representing my character, he is talented with technology and independent. Additionally he's my main the game.

Elena	2	Last year we traveled to Tuscany, visited a bunch of museums in Florence, visited beautiful and imposing churches and each soooooo much delicious food 😊. The picture features the view from San Gimignano the place with the best ice cream in the world. My favorite memory from Italy is my from a walk with my husband along the pier of a small city, with a delicious piece of pizza from a small family pizza place which we found in a tiny little street. We reminisce on how we pictured our lives that we get to live now. It was such a beautiful reminder of our younger selves and it was even more beautiful too see how many of our wishes were fulfilled.
Nyu	2	My last vacation was on a Croatian island. It was mesmerizing 😊. The sea was a deep blue and you could forget all your sorrows immediately. Relaxing on the beach was my favorite thing to do, ideally with a good book. Since the weeks leading up to the vacation were pretty stressful, my favorite memory is the beach café I found on my second day. The café was practically built into the mountain. It was a calm and shady little place with the probably best coffee I ever had. I could spend hours there just relaxing and watching the waves roll in. I'm excited to read your stories <3
Martin	2	In the summer we vacationed at home and spent a lot of time with the kids, either hiking, riding our bikes or at the pool. The picture above is from our hike in Garmisch. My most cherished memory is probably from exactly that hike. It was pretty exhausting, especially for the kids but we were rewarded with a spectacular view at the Zugspitze. To go back down we did choose a gondola though. Overall it was a pretty great day.
Max	2	Greetings from Switzerland! My last vacation was a weekend trip with a friend for a concert in Zürich. Sadly the concert was in a huge stadium, meaning the acoustics were questionable, still it was definitely worth it. Technically I would love to say the concert was the best part of the trip but the acoustics really did drag it down. What was amazing was meeting my friend again. I've known him since highschool but sadly study in different cities now. So I'm even happier that we got to hang out on the weekend.
Laura	2	Hi guys 🥰 I took the picture on a farm in Panama 🌴🦜, from my work and travel time. Choosing a favorite memory feels impossible since my entire trip was so beautiful I just wanna go back! 🤔😊 Today!! But my favorite memory has to be me and my friend, who worked on the farm as well going horseback riding! 🐎🐎 Oftentimes we got to go riding by ourselves in the afternoon and on our first trip we talked for ages and got to explore the whole area for the first time, it was amazing! 🥰 So many experiences and pictures! We even saw a parrot 🦜. They are even more beautiful out in the wild than they are in the zoo! 💕
Arjen	2	It was pretty difficult to find a picture from London without any people in it. I'm not the biggest photographer so I don't usually take a lot of pictures either. However I thought the armor from the museum was pretty cool and had to capture it. Thus the picture. I like to look back to an evening in a typical English pub with my friends. Spent the whole evening there and it was my first time (I know pretty late) drinking Guinness. Was the last time too haha. Beer from here is better after all. But the atmosphere was awesome. Despite Guinness debacle amazing evening.
Max	3	Boah, to be honest, I don't know what my big goals in life are. Currently I'm simply a student and want to fully enjoy student life with all its concerts, parties and travels. So for now my goal is to simply be. What I wanna leave the world only time will tell, something positive for sure but what, how, where I don't know and I don't have to know. Values, everyone always talks about values, ideas, expectations, what do we even mean by that? I don't think something like that needs to be defined. Just be respectful, shouldn't that be enough?

Nyu	3	Today's task really made me think. I think what I value most is honesty and kindness. It's important for me to be honest and greet everyone with a smile. Everyone deserves a second chance, you never know what kind of problems they may be facing. That's what I wanna leave the world as well, a little bit more happiness and kindness, especially with those close to me. Concerning my goals my highest priority is happiness, a goal I believe is on the one hand incredibly difficult to achieve and at the same time the most important, oftentimes forgotten, goal. I wish all of you succeed on your path to your goals and never forget to look after yourselves <3
Martin	3	I would like to leave my children a better world, even if only in a small capacity. For example I want to offer them a stable and secure future, at least as far as I can influence it. It's my biggest goal to spend as much time with my family as I can. That's why I'm hopeful I soon get to switch into a different department where working hours align better with family. To be able to support my wife and children better would mean a lot to me. And of course it would be nice to have some more time for sports as well ;), but it is what it is, am I right? My values are nothing new, but I do believe them important, honesty, hard work, ambition, friendliness, and respect. That's how I try to raise my children as well.
Elena	3	What I wanna leave the world I'm afraid I don't know yet. Since I became a mom I'm experiencing a whole new world with new experiences and priorities. I am basically getting to know myself all over again and learned to adopt a completely different outlook on life. So my values are definitely to already remain open to new possibilities: Knowledge, impressions, experiences, and to not hinder change but welcome it with open arms. My biggest goal is to be a great mom and still be able to have a career. I hope I will be able to further my career, while being the best possible mom for my little one as possible.
Laura	3	Hello my darlings ✨! Wow today's question really made me think... I would really like to expand my social media presence, so I can reach as many people as possible and inspire them to follow their dreams! ✨🌟🌟 That's what I wanna leave behind as well. People who I was able to help become happier, that would be my dream! 😊 That's why topics such as mental health and body positive are super important! 💙💜💛 especially on social media there are so many toxic people so I want to stand for something nice! That's what I already try to do on my accounts, which is why I often write about these topics in my captions. 💜
Arjen	3	I wanna leave the world more openness and I would like to remind people that adults get to play as well. Everyone loves to play and I feel like we're losing our lightheartedness and fun with life way too fast. Not everyone needs to be serious all the time that would be way too boring. Uff, otherwise it's my goal to do some exciting research, something that really combines biology and computer science. Just one of them would be too boring and there is so much yet to be explored and understood, that would be pretty exciting. But let's see where life takes me haha I'm sure everything will be totally different after all. My values are definitely openness for new things and having fun, I think that's definitely the most important thing.
Martin	4	I am currently reading "Zombie Scrum Survival Guide – A Journey to Recovery", which I lend from a college. It really does describe reality pretty accurately and made me chuckle. https://www.zombiescrum.org/ In terms of my music taste I'm afraid it hasn't changed much since my college days. I can still happily recommend New Model Army, whose live concerts I got to listen to back in the day. The link will lead you to the song family, a especially special one https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iLQH4ax1UWU . In

		terms of shows I'm a typical German, but watching Tatort in the evening with family is just fun. The link to the ARD streaming platform: https://www.ardmediathek.de/tatort?xtor=CS1-249-[g]-[tatort]-[aon-f]-[v2]&gclid=CjwKCAjwhNWZBhB_EiwAPzlhNtgt4nKzP38E4YMoZ1gytWGUmZcA2XzqCiMBUMXPEBnDXCIR38B1RhoCtzQQAvD_BwE. The picture is of my bike, since either as sport or with my family on tour, my bike has a bunch of amazing memories attached to it.
Nyu	4	Today's topic couldn't be more perfect for me! 😊 What makes me the happiest is my origami – paper – collection. I use them for a bunch of different things, from decorating cards to crafting presents such as bookmarks, bags, or little flower vases. Every now and again I create little figurines for my friends. Origami simply makes my life more colorful and happy. One of my favourite songs is David Garret's interpretation of A la Turca. Classical music, especially the violin and David Garret have fascinated me for a long time now. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=trPwZ8kcDMQ In terms of books I can recommend "the boy, the mole, the fox and the horse" The book is full of magical illustrations, beautiful and tells a wonderful tale, which truly reminds you of the good in people's hearts. https://lehmkuhl.buchhandlung.de/shop/article/41908658/charlie_mackesy_der_junge_der_maulwurf_der_fuchs_und_das_pferd.html Finally I want to recommend Monsieur Claude and his daughters. You have no choice but to laugh when watching it and it really illustrates that you should give everyone a change to overcome their own prejudice. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MXb08CpoREE I hope you will enjoy my recommendations as much as I do <3
Max	4	Well today tasks I can do much better than yesterdays. As lover of music and political science student is the Wind of Change a song that never fails to make me happy: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n4RjJKxsamQ For the movie I'm staying on the theme of music. I have recently discovered the runaways for myself. It's about the first female rock band, pretty cool! https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sprLNkyvdFk I'm currently reading the
Laura	4	Hallo my darlings 🌟💖🎵 My favorite song for sure is You Belong With Me by Taylor Swift. The song is already pretty old but still is so much fun and always puts you in a good mood! 🥰🥰🥰 https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VuNIsY6JdUw 📖 My book recommendation is the Spanish Love Deception. I just finished it and it's super fun. A strong and confident woman 🧝‍♀️, who gets what she wants as well as enemies to lovers romance, what else could you possibly want? 🥰💜💖💕 https://www.thalia.de/shop/home/artikeldetails/A1064109187 📺 The best show for sure is friends 🧑🏻🧑🏻🧑🏻🧑🏻🧑🏻, you can call be basic I don't care! It's so popular there's no need to describe what it's about, but to cheer everyone up here's a link tot he title song but with puppies: https://www.youtube.com/shorts/TsyU9M22UvQ Finally something that makes me happy: my weekly tomato ciabatta! 🍞 It's almost a set ritual form e now to get one after yoga class from my favourit bakery 🧑🏻🍞. Heavenly! 🥰
Elena	4	Well I already told you my favorite show on day one, Stranger Things. Anyone who hasn't seen it yet, should absolutely give it a chance! Thus here's a link to the trailer of the first season: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mnd7sFt5c3A My second favorite show is Gilmore Girls. I would be delighted if my little girl and I will one day have a relationship like the Gilmore girls in the show. If you enjoyed the show as much as I did I can only recommend Lauren Grahams book: https://www.amazon.com/-/de/dp/B01L0H5PD8/ref=sr_1_2?keywords=gilmore+girls+books&qid=1664448792&qu=eyJxc2MiOiIOLjk2IiwicXNhIjojoiNC45OSIsInFzcCI6IjQuNDgifQ%3D%3D&sr=8-2 A song that makes me smile is Shivers by Ed Sheeran. You should absolutly listen to it. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IlOS8BoucSA A picture of something that makes me happy would absolutly be my little girl but sadly I can't post her which is why I'm

		sending you a picture of her favorite blankie. In the evenings we always cuddle up in there together and I listen to her talk until she falls asleep. 🥰🥰💖💖💖
Arjen	4	I'm currently for probably like the forth time the lord of the rings. So I really can't recommend another book. Tolkien was simply a genius, it is what it is. Thus here's a link to a nice version: https://www.amazon.de/Hobbit-Lord-Rings-Deluxe-Pocket/dp/0544445783/ref=sr_1_5?keywords=lord+of+the+rings+book+set&qid=1664524504&qu=eyJxc2MiOilzLjg1IiwicXNhIjoIMy42NilsInFzcCI6IjMuMjYifQ%3D%3D&srefix=lord+of+the+%2Caps%2C107&sr=8-5 in terms of show I would have loved to say rings of power, I was giga hyped for it, but sadly the show is garbage. So let's stay classy and recommend lord of the rings, extended edition of course... https://www.amazon.de/Herr-Ringe-Extended-Trilogie-Blu-ray/dp/B0B2TTJN16/ref=sr_1_2?keywords=lord+of+the+rings+extended+editio n&qid=1664524593&qu=eyJxc2MiOilzLjc0IiwicXNhIjoIMy4zNilsInFzcCI6IjluNjcifQ%3D%3D&srefix=lord+of+the+rings+exten%2Caps%2C91&sr=8-2 As a song Into the West... nah just kidding, I think here I'll rather say Enemy by Imagine Dragons x J.I.D. from Arcane (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D9G1VOjN_84) It's just fun and and the show is also amazing, not just for lol players ;). Last but no least the picture. Today the fan for my raspi finally arrived. My raspi is practically my baby, just better ;) (doesn't cry and can be turned off if it's too loud, no offence though) It's already been with me for a year and I'm currently trying to implement facial recognition and connect it to the sound system so it can recognize visitors and play specific song s. Fingers crossed haha :D.
Elena	5	Overall i'm really good but sometimes it's simply really hard to be a mom. My little one still doesn't quite sleep through the night meaning we don't sleep through the night either and sometimes she just won't stop crying no matter what we do. I think I really only wish to be able to sleep through the night for once. Maybe I can actually think straight afterwards. At the same time I'm sometimes a little worried that I loose my old self. But whenever I think something like that I'm always worried it'll make me a bad mother. I hope not. It's probably normal and just kinda part of parenthood.
Nyu	5	I miss my family in Korea 🥰❤️. Since I moved to Germany I was only able to visit my parents and siblings once. Of course we try to zoom as much as possible and always sent each other pictures from our life but I would still really like to just give them a hug. I have always been a big family person and being separated from them for so long was never the plan ☹️ Gesterday was also my sisters 20th birthday and I would have loved to be there to celebrate with her. These moments are particularly difficult. And of course I miss my friends in Korea and you can't forget the food either 🤤. I wish all of you a lot of strength and resilience for your troubles <3
Martin	5	Wow, i really didn't think such a question would be asked here, neither did I think I would talk about what I'm about to share. I think the anonymity helps. 2 months ago my mother was diagnosed with cancer. I'm rationally aware that my own parents aren't going to live forever but it doesn't make it any less difficult to watch her get worse everyday and at the same time have the feeling you can't do anything about it. My wife and I are trying to take care of my parents as best as we can but currently, especially since we try to shield the kids, it isn't always easy. I couldn't wish for anything more than for my mom to feel better again and that she doesn't have to feel pain anymore.
Max	5	For me overall my main problem is uni. There's always some deadline for papers, talks, exams, projects... I feel like I'm never try done, never catch up and never catch a break. No matter when there's always something to do and it builds up a lot of pressure. Don't get me wrong, I like to study, but sometimes the stress really overwhelms me. At the end of the day those are the small problems of life and there's so much worse that could be happening. I'm really glad this is my only worry at the moment.

Laura	5	Hello my darlings 😊 I'm currently really sad because my cat had to be put down 3 months ago 😞. Sadly he was really sick and would have only suffered more and we could have never done that to him! Anton was the sweetest cat in the world!! ❤️🐱❤️ My paretns adopted him when I was 7, so I don't really know a life without him and would have never changed this for the world! 🧑❤️🐱 Anton was such a cuddly cat he always wanted extra cuddles even when I had to do homework or smt like that. And whenever I was sad he came to me to cheer me up 😊😭❤️💜 I will always miss you Anton!! 💜
Arjen	5	This probably sounds like a complete first world problem, especially since some of you have real proper problems, but it's currently really weighing on me that I don't know what to do after university. I was already a working student and did an internship but I was always just used as a coder and the relation to biology was not there at all. I would really like to have a job where I can do something of value. I'm really scared that I won't find it. As I already wrote a couple of days ago, this is why I hope to do research. But that's also a pretty weird field and if I'll really get in... so many questions so little time so much uncertainty... but a bunch of people before me figured it out also.
